PARENT BRAG SHEET

Now is your time to brag! Over the past three years, you have watched your child mature and develop into the high school senior we see today. Now you have the opportunity to give your views/reactions through the questions below. When appropriate, this information will be included in your child's letter of recommendation. If you would like to add information, please feel free to write on the other side or attach another sheet. Please have your child submit this sheet with the rest of the senior packet to their counselor.

We look forward to your input.
